Brandon Rith
Achievable FINRA/NASAA author

Our FINRA content is written exclusively for Achievable by Brandon Rith. Brandon has helped thousands of learners pass difficult FINRA and NASAA exams by breaking down difficult concepts into easily understandable topics, and translating complex financial language into plain English. His approach, combined with our powerful AI-powered adaptive learning platform, makes Achievable courses uniquely effective.

Brandon was formerly the Director of Licensing at Fidelity Investments. During his time there, Brandon received 100% top-box (7/7 stars) facilitation rating (2016-2018), 8x Fidelity Investments Excellence in Action winner for Licensing Facilitation, and was the #1 nationally ranked Licensing Facilitator for Fidelity Investments (2015-2016).

Easy to get started

Upgrade your licensing program

Achievable courses might seem too good to be true, but they are: 95%+ pass on their first take with only half the study time as typically required. With Achievable, you'll get your reps licensed faster.

No contract required

Getting started with Achievable is simple. We'll set up a co-branded enrollment page for your firm and instructor accounts so you can track your reps' exam readiness. Enroll reps on-the-fly without needing a contract; we'll discuss bulk discounts when you're ready.

Management dashboard

Track your reps' readiness and key stats at a glance. Achievable's dashboard makes it easy to see who's ready to pass, or who might need a little extra help.
